Experience

Rhonda was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1989 after graduating top of her class from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. Her undergraduate degree was also obtained from the University of Florida where she was an Outstanding Four Year Scholar with a 4.0 grade point average. She began her legal career as a commercial litigator in a full-service Jacksonville, Florida firm, representing corporations and individuals in the areas of business torts, antitrust and unfair competition, class actions, mortgage brokerage receiverships, professional liability, administrative disciplinary matters, bid protests, and real estate litigation. Since joining Taylor Day in 1996, she has focused on insurance coverage issues, defending extra liability claims and appeals in the state and Federal courts.

She has received an AV® Preeminent Rating from Martindale-Hubbell™ and has been recognized as a Florida Super Lawyer in the area of appellate law by Super Lawyers for the years 2015 through 2018.

When Rhonda isn't busy practicing law, she enjoys spending time with her family, including her husband, Ken, and four children.
