Experience

Britt was born in Portland, Oregon, but grew up in Denmark. She spent most of her childhood overseas before returning to Oregon to attend high school. She attended Portland State University and finished her bachelor's at the University of Amsterdam with a certificate in International Law. She moved to Florida to attend Florida Coastal School of Law and, upon graduation, worked of counsel for a local PIP law firm. In 2018, she started her own firm practicing PIP, personal injury and family law.

Now, at Taylor Day Law, Britt focuses her practice on Personal Injury Protection Benefits.

Outside the office, Britt enjoys outdoor activities (adventure sports) and traveling around the world.
