Experience

Originally from Houston, Texas, Brandi relocated to Florida, where she completed her education and began her legal career.

Brandi earned her Bachelor of Science in Criminology from Florida State University. She went on to receive her Juris Doctor from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Tampa, Florida.

Prior to joining the firm, Brandi served as an Assistant State Attorney for both the 10th and 4th Judicial Circuits in Florida. In that role, she represented the State of Florida in numerous evidentiary hearings and trials, gaining valuable courtroom and litigation experience.

Brandi now draws on her prosecutorial background to effectively advocate for her clients and protect their interests through thorough preparation and strategic case management.

Outside of her practice, Brandi enjoys spending time on the water, traveling, and being with family and friends, as well as her hound dog.
