Experience

Before joining Taylor, Day, Grimm & Boyd, Calli worked at a national insurance defense firm handling predominately bodily injury, legal malpractice, and medical malpractice claims. She continues her practice at Taylor Day focusing on insurance coverage issues, complex commercial litigation, and appellate practice.

In 2014, Calli graduated from the University of Florida where she earned a Bachelor's degree with a major in History. She then went on to earn a Juris Doctor in 2018 from Florida Coastal School of Law, graduating cum laude. During law school, Calli served as an Editor for the Florida Coastal Law Review and an active member of the Moot Court team.

Calli is admitted to practice in all state courts in Florida, as well as the United States District Courts for the Northern and Middle Districts of Florida. She is also a Board Member for the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU).

When she is not at work she enjoys instructing and performing aerial dance, running, and spending time with her friends and family.
