Christopher P. “Bo” Boyd

Shareholder

Experience

Christopher P. “Bo” Boyd was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1992. He graduated cum laude from Florida State University in 1989 and with honors from the Florida State University College of Law in 1992. He joined the firm in 1992, and his practice involves representing employers, carriers, and third-party administrators in the defense of claims brought under the Florida Workers’ Compensation Act, the Longshore and Harbor Workers’ Compensation Act, and the Defense Base Act.

Bo frequently speaks on a broad range of topics relevant to the Florida Workers’ Compensation Act and the Longshore Act. He has performed numerous in-house CLE programs for clients and has lectured at nationally recognized conferences such as the Florida Workers’ Compensation Conference and the Loyola Annual Longshore Conference. Bo became shareholder at Taylor Day in 1997 and is currently serving as the firm's Managing Shareholder.

In his spare time, Bo enjoys running, reading, and attending his kids’ sporting events. He is also an avid Florida State Seminole fan. He and his wife, Christine, live in Jacksonville with their three children.
