Experience

Clarissa is originally from San Diego, California. She received her Bachelor of Science in Pre-Law from National University and began her career as a paralegal. Clarissa joined Taylor, Day, Grimm and Boyd in 2018 and after a few short years was inspired and encouraged to return to school to obtain her Juris Doctorate. She obtained her Juris Doctorate, from Barry University, Dwyane O. Andreas School of Law, and transitioned within the firm as an Associate in our Worker's Compensation division.

When she is not at work, Clarissa enjoys spending time with her daughter, reading, and traveling.
