Experience

Originally from Canada, Justice moved to Florida in 2014 in search of warm weather. She received her Bachelor of Art in Political Science from the University of South Florida, followed by her Juris Doctorate, cum laude, from Florida Coastal School of Law, where she graduated ranked 8th in her class. While at Florida Coastal, Justice was the Vice President of the nationally ranked Moot Court Honor Board and won a Best Oralist award at a national competition.

Before joining Taylor, Day, Grimm & Boyd, Justice worked at a local civil litigation law firm practicing a wide variety of cases, including contract disputes and property law.

When not at work, Justice enjoys spending time with her husband, Josef, and dog, June, as well as rowing with the Jacksonville Rowing Club.
