Experience

Luke was born and raised in Jacksonville, Florida, and graduated from St. John's County Day School. He attended Daytona State College on a baseball scholarship and finished his bachelor's degree in political science at the University of Florida. He then attended Barry University School of Law in Orlando, Florida, where he advocated on Barry's mock trial team. In 2022, he led his team to 1st place in the Florida Justice Association's mock trial competition in the Duval County courthouse.

That courthouse is where he would go on to become an Assistant State Attorney for 2.5 years, prosecuting a wide range of misdemeanor and felony cases, from petit theft to armed robbery. At Taylor Day Law, Luke focuses his practice on Auto Insurance Defense.

Outside the office, Luke enjoys serving at his local church, going to the beach, playing pickleball, and willing the Jags to victory.
